Phishing Awareness

Think Before You Click

CODE ALPHA

Name: Varun Siddeshwar Joshi

STUDENT ID: CA/SE1/6178

Introduction

- Phishing is a cyber-attack technique

  Involves exploiting human
- psychology to extract sensitive information

  Using fake emails, messages, or
- fraudulent website

Be aware and Avoid being the next victim

STUDENT ID:
CA/SE1/6178

Common Types Of Phishing Attacks

1. Email Phishing

DO NOT ! That's obviously a malicious link

STUDENT ID:
CA/SE1/6178

Common Types Of Phishing Attacks

2. Website Phishing

Alert! Unsecure page Not the o cial PayPal website Do not enter your credentials

STUDENT ID:
CA/SE1/6178

Common Types Of Phishing Attacks

2. Website Phishing

Alert! Unsecure page Not the o cial PayPal website Do not enter your credentials

STUDENT ID:
CA/SE1/6178

Common Types Of Phishing Attacks

Caller ID Spoofing
DO NOT FALL

4. Vishing (Voice Phishing)

STUDENT ID:
CA/SE1/6178

Scenario Of A Social Engineering Attack

Detecting An Attempt Of Phishing Email

- Check the sender's email adress
- Inspect the Email Content
- Examine Links Before Clicking
- Verify Unexpected Password Reset Emails
- Avoid Opening Suspicious Attachments

STUDENT ID:
CA/SE1/6178

Detecting An Attempt Of Phishing Email

- Check the sender's email adress
- Inspect the Email Content
- Examine Links Before Clicking
- Verify Unexpected Password Reset Emails
- Avoid Opening Suspicious Attachments

STUDENT ID:
CA/SE1/6178

Safety Protocols To Avoid Phishing

- Patch and Update security softwares
- Train and Educate Employees
- Use Two-Factor Authentication (2FA)
- Report Suspicious Attempts

STUDENT ID:
CA/SE1/6178